5. Language teachers are certified to teach Polish as a foreign language.
6. The activities are continuous, there will not be any so-called. "free time" for Participants, except for short relaxation breaks and/or meals, agreed upon with the teacher.
7. As part of the organisation of the course, the Course Organiser pays for Participants':
 - a) Teaching materials,
 - b) Lunch breaks,
 - c) Accident insurance for the Participants,
 - d) Cleaning products and, if necessary, personal protective equipment,
 - e) Transport - at Participant's request.
8. Attendance at courses, receipt of documents and equivalents referred to in paragraph 3(7) The Participant shall confirm by hand signature.

§ 4. Main safety rules

1. Participants will be covered by accident insurance.
2. The Course Organiser is not liable for the loss of personal belongings by the Participant, in particular mobile phones, cameras and other valuable equipment and their use by other course Participants.

§ 5. Framework rules and responsibilities for course Participants

1. The aim of the project is to enable adults to study and gain the abilities to use the Polish language as well as the knowledge on Polish culture, customs and history to the extent that makes them professionally and socially active and that they have an influence on their standard of life in Poland.
2. At the beginning of the course, the principles of good cooperation in a friendly and welcoming environment will be defined.
3. Participants shall comply with the rules presented and accept them.
4. Each Participant in the course is obliged to:
 - a) Read the course rules.
 - b) Familiarise themselves with the course schedule and follow it.
 - c) Inform the Course Organiser of any problematic situations.
 - d) Report to the Course Organiser any symptoms of poor well-being.
 - e) Ensure the cleanliness of the course rooms and take proper care of the teaching aids entrusted to them.
 - f) Use of the teaching room equipment for its intended purpose.
5. In the event of a Participant's breach of the course rules, the Course Organiser may deny the Participant their right to continue the course.
6. At the end of the course, a Participant who has attended at least 80 % of the classes, will receive a certificate of completion of the Polish language course for foreigners.
7. The Course Organiser must be notified about the Participant's resignation in writing. In the case of a minor participant, the parental/legal guardian or carer shall resign on behalf of the minor Participant.
8. If the Participant resigns within 5 days before the start of the first classes, the next declared person may take the place of the resigning person.
9. Any complaints must be made in writing no later than fourteen calendar days after the completion of the course, to the secretariat of the Course Organiser. The Course Organiser shall respond to the complaint within 14 calendar days of the date on which the Participant submitted the complaint. Complaints submitted after the expiry of the period of 14 calendar days after the end of the course will not be taken into account.
10. For matters not covered by these Rules or the Agreement, Kodeks Cywilny [Civil Code] laws shall apply.

§ 6. Financing of the course

1. Polish language course for foreigners, together with the costs indicated in Section 3 point. 7, organised as a part of the "Together We Can Do More - First Edition of the 2022-2023 Activation Programme for Foreigners" programme, is free of charge for Participants.
2. Funds intended to cover the expenditure connected to the implementation of the courses from the Labour Fund Reserve will be transferred to the bank account of the Organiser by the Łódzkie Region.

§ 7. Protection of personal data

Pursuant to Article 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27th April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter "GDPR"):

1. The personal data controller is the Board of the Łódzkie Region with its registered office in Łódź 90-051, al. Piłsudskiego 8, who is the implementer of the project entitled „Together We Can Do More - First Edition of the 2022-2023 Activation Programme for Foreigners”.
2. The Controller has appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be contacted by writing to the Administrator's registered office or e-mail address: iod@lodzkie.pl
3. Personal data will be processed for the purpose of performing a task in the public interest, i.e. professional activation and implementation of the agreement concluded between the Fund Administrator and the implementer, i.e. completion of the course, recruitment of Participants, control, reporting, statistics, evaluation of the project, on the basis of:
 - Article 6, par. (1)(e) GDPR in conjunction with the Law of 20th April 2004 on the promotion of employment and labour market institutions;
 - Article 6, par. (1)(b) GDPR, i.e. for the purpose of concluding and implementing an agreement.

4. The recipients/categories of recipients of personal data collected in the programme will be:

(Course Organiser's stamp)

- Ministry of Family and Social Policy,
- Banks supporting the budget of educational establishments subordinate to the Łódzkie Region,
- providers of IT systems and services,
- persons entitled to receive data on a legal basis,
- postal and courier operators delivering correspondence,
- a person requesting public information or public sector information for re-use only to the extent and subject matter to which the obligation to provide such information is provided for by the applicable law.

5. The data will be kept for a period of 5 years from the beginning of the year following the end of the project.
6. Persons whose data will be processed in the programme have the right to request access their personal data, the right to rectification and erasure or restriction of processing if the grounds listed in Articles 17 and 18 of the GDPR apply.
7. Persons whose data will be processed in the programme have the right to object to the processing of personal data concerning the data processed on the basis of Article 6, par. (1)(e) GDPR.
8. Persons whose data will be processed in the programme have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office, when they consider that the processing infringes the GDPR.
9. The provision of data is voluntary, but necessary for the conclusion and performance of the agreement. Failure to provide data will make it impossible to conclude and implement an agreement for the organisation of a vocational training course for foreigners under the „Together We Can Do More - First Edition of the 2022-2023 Activation Programme for Foreigners”.
